BETA READER QUESTIONNAIRE

Before you began reading, what about this story interested you the most?

What about the first chapter drew you in to read more?

List any moments of the story's opening that felt underdeveloped:

Did the beginning effectively establish a main problem that needed to be solved? What are the problems you thought needed to be solved?

What character did you enjoy most? What character did you enjoy least? And why did you like/dislike them?

Name any characters that you felt served little to no purpose:

Name any characters that were difficult to visualize:

Which aspects of the character's relationships and backstories felt unbelievable? Why were they not convincing?

Was there enough balance between dialogue and description? List any specific moments you felt a little lost:

Which lines of dialogue did you find particularly memorable?

Which characters lacked a distinctive or authentic voice?

Which settings were the most vivid? Which settings were the most obscure?

What was your favorite part of the story? And why?

What was your least favorite part of the story? And why?

At what places did you put the book down or lose interest? What points lagged?

Which outcomes were you able to predict prior to them happening in the story?

What parts of the story surprised you the most?

Which moments were the most emotional?

Which elements (scenes, character motivations, actions, solutions) did you find too far-fetched or illogical?

List any discrepancies or inconsistencies in time sequences, places, character details, plot, etc.:

Why did you find the ending satisfying or unsatisfying?

What questions did you have that were left unanswered?

If this book was part of the series, would you read the next book in the series? Why or why not?